

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Wednesday, Aug. 16

2000

Society of Engineering Managers meets Aug. 29

Managers and aspiring managers are invited to attend the next American Society of Engineering Managers meeting at noon Aug. 29 at the Redstone Officers' and Civilians' Club. The Huntsville Chapter is under formation and is enrolling charter members. For membership and meeting information, call Pamela Takada at 544-3645.

Shuttle upgrade presentations, 8 a.m.-noon, Wed., Morris Auditorium

History chat 11-11:30 a.m., Fri., Heritage Gallery

Safety Bowl questions

1. What is the most common source of pollution of streams, rivers and oceans?
  - a) Waste dumped by factories
  - b) Garbage dumping by cities
  - c) Surface run-off
  - d) Overflowing swimming pools
2. Ergonomic injuries can occur when:
  - a) The same motion is repeated throughout the day
  - b) Work is continually performed in an awkward position
  - c) A great deal of force must be used to perform the job
  - d) Heavy objects must be repeatedly lifted and lowered
  - e) Any one or combination of these risk factors

Answers to Safety Bowl questions:
1. c) Surface run-off
2. e) Any one or combination of these risk factors

*See answers at left